COURSE PLAN NOTES:

- ❖ The course plan assignments include all Lessons and assigned translations in Henle III with additional translation assignments from Part III of the text. There are intentionally more translation passages included in Henle III than many students can complete in the course of a year. Parents and teachers are free to supplement the translation assignments given or to reduce the translation assignments from Part III, bearing in mind that the Quarterly Exams will only include material covered in the course plan.
- ❖ There are intentionally more exercises on each concept in the Henle text than many students will need. Because of this, a list of exercises that may be omitted or shortened is given in the course plans for each Lesson. How many of these exercises are completed is left to the discretion of the teacher. Because the focus and main task of this year of Latin is the ability to translate source texts, fewer exercises are given than in previous years. If possible it would be good practice to give weekly, closed book, quizzes or tests, using questions from the exercise sections in the Lessons of the student book.
- ❖ The course plan starts out with much extra information in the Key points in order to help you learn the language of Latin grammar and guide you through the Henle text. Each Lesson should be read in full and each new concept studied carefully through out the week.

- ❖ Kolbe's quarterly exam will cover those Lessons laid out in the course plan, if you deviate from the course plan alter your test to reflect the Lessons your student covered.
- ❖ Pronunciation is not of paramount importance as it would be in a modern language. Sound out words carefully, consulting the pronunciation guide. Note that the pronunciation guide provided in this course plan differs a little from the one Fr. Henle provides. Choose one method of pronunciation and consistently use it. One need not, however, be overly concerned about pronunciation.
- ❖ Memorization is key to learning any language. A diligent student should keep flash cards and devote fifteen to twenty minutes daily simply to memorization. Emphasis should be placed on repetition and memorization, as these are the primary ways to learn a language. Repetition does not equal drudgery. In the book, and in individual classes, repetition can take the form of games, contests, etc. This is especially helpful for younger students.
- ❖ Many memorization assignments listed in the Henle III text will not be included in these course plans. Because very little new grammar and no new forms are introduced in this year of Latin, this course plan does not consider the memorization of portions of text to be necessary in every Lesson. Students should re-memorize any paradigms given in the grammar reviews that they may find themselves unfamiliar with.
- ❖ English grammar sources should be used when necessary to clarify grammatical points.
- ❖ ASSIGNMENTS
 - 1) Each week the lesson should be read and studied carefully.
 - 2) Finally do the exercises and translation from the weekly lesson.

NOTES ON GRADING:

- As in any language there are multiple areas that need to be taken in to consideration: Grammar, Vocabulary, Speaking, Writing, and Listening. It would be good to have a separate weekly grade for each of these. At the end of the semester these should be averaged for the final grade.

WEEK 2
xiii 3 – 11	Digest of the First Oration against Catiline Roman Constitutional Government Versus Anarchy Stylistic Devices		Propositio

xxxi – xxxvi 11 – 13	First Oration Against Catiline	Introduction, anaphora, irony Lines 1 – 31
Assign	HENLE EXS.		GRAMMAR
🔑 1) Read the English introduction to Cicero’s First Oration Against Catiline pgs. 3 – 10 and the Propositio section of the Digest of the First Oration Against Catiline to give context for the speech you are about to translate. 2) Throughout the year as you translate Cicero refer back to the Word-Groups and Idioms list that begins on page 345. While translating the student should keep track of and memorize the idioms listed for the First and Third Orations Against Catiline and the first 26 idioms given for The Impeachment of Gaius Verres. Idioms from this list will appear on exams. 3) Read the short introduction in the section on Stylistic Devices. All the passages of Cicero that you will be translating this year are public speeches. The ancients (Greek and Roman) used specific kinds of expressions, or figures of speech, to embellish their speeches and persuade or move their audiences; some of these kinds of expressions will be introduced to you in this section. Glance through the section and note that these figures of speech include changes in word order, use of words and expression of ideas. Some of these figures of speech, such as irony and metaphor, may already be familiar. Carefully read and study the descriptions of anaphora (p. xxxii) and irony (p. xxxvi.) Do not be intimidated by the technical Greek names of these rhetorical techniques; because these devices are not frequently used in English they will often stand out to you as you translate. Notice the examples of each of these devices as you translate the assignment for this week. 4) Translate lines 1 – 31 of the First Oration Against Catiline.
