COURSE TITLE: Reading

COURSE TEXTS: Catholic National Reader, Book Five (T1865)
Kolbe Guide to the Catholic National Reader, Book Five (T1865A)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Grade Five reading program is designed to introduce the young student to the world of literature. There are basic questions that apply to all literature. The student, moreover, begins to understand the world and God's creation through literature. Essentially, all education is literature-based, as the overall style of the Scriptures shows. It is through literature that man comes to know, love, and serve.

The Catholic National Reader (CNR), Book Five is the primary reader for this level. The child should read orally every day. Go through the vocabulary making explanations when necessary. It is good for him to read the story to himself first so it will not be a cold reading. It is also suggested that the student read the questions in the student's guide before reading the story. If necessary at first, point out the answers to the questions as the student reads the story. This is a good study technique in each subject in which the student is required to answer questions at the end of a chapter or lesson.

Read carefully and follow the Introduction to the Teacher's Edition of Questions for the Catholic National Reader, Book Five. The Catholic National Reader is quite challenging so if necessary, proceed more slowly than the course plans suggest. It is not unusual for a student to be reading the book that is a year below his grade level. Make sure the student understands the vocabulary and the content of the stories. He should also have a book from the Elementary Literature program or the Kolbe Academy Recommended Reading List for his grade level. Use your own discretion. It is recommended that the student spend some time reading the extra book in the evening as a bedtime routine and on weekends.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The student is to be introduced to:

- ❖ the world in literature
- ❖ the world of imagination
- ❖ the world in others' minds
- ❖ a Christian approach to literature

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE:

- Quarter 1: Lessons I-III, VII, X-XV, XVII-XVIII, XX, XXIV-XXVII & outside reading
- Quarter 2: Lessons XXVIII- XXXIII, XXXV- XXVI, XXXIX, XL- XLV & outside reading
- Quarter 3: Lessons XLVI, XLVIII, XLIX, L-LV, LVII-LVIII, LXI, LXVI- LXX & outside reading
- Quarter 4: Lessons LXVII, LXIX, LXX, LXXIII-LXXVI, LXXX, LXXXII- LXXXIII, LXXXIV, LXXXIX, XC-XCVI, XCVII & outside reading

SKILLS TO BE DEVELOPED:

There are five principles that are essential for the student to understand and apply in reading literature. The reader must:

- ❖ read with objective charity;

- ❖ understand that the parts do not condemn the whole;
- ❖ recognize sin as such when he encounters it in his reading;
- ❖ avoid reading tempting descriptions of sin;
- ❖ understand that fiction's function is not to teach.

For an elucidation of these principles, consult Tenets for Readers and Reviewers. (T1912)

There are four principles on the function of literature:

- ❖ Art is a moral activity.
- ❖ Literature is fundamentally religious.
- ❖ Art inspires.
- ❖ Art is a means of charity.

COURSE PLAN METHODOLOGY:

Kolbe Academy has worked diligently to create the best possible course plans with the home schooling family in mind. Remember, however, that our program is intended to be flexible. Per the principle of subsidiarity, these course plans are a suggested course of study. As the teacher, you should adapt and modify these course plans to meet the individual learning needs of your child. Do not feel obligated to follow these course plans exactly.

In the course plans that follow, the Catholic National Reader, Book 5 is represented by the abbreviation CNR. The Kolbe Academy Guide to the Catholic National Reader is represented by the abbreviation GUIDE. Each weekly assignment is summarized in the first rows of the week's daily course plan along with the goals and notes for that week. Read carefully and follow the Introduction to the Teacher's Edition of Questions for the Catholic National Reader, Book Four. The Catholic National Reader is quite challenging so if necessary, proceed more slowly than the course plans suggest. It is not unusual for a student to be reading the book that is a year below his grade level. Make sure the student understands the vocabulary and the content of the stories. Some of the stories in the Catholic National Reader are not included in the course plans. Encourage the student to read even the ones that are not assigned as evening reading for pleasure. He should also have a book from the Elementary Literature program or the Kolbe Academy Recommended Reading List for his grade level. Use your own discretion. It is recommended that the student spend some time reading the extra book in the evening as a bedtime routine and on weekends.

A weekly grade book is included at the end of the week's course plan as a convenience. It includes a cumulative list of written assignments from the week's course plan with point values given as a suggestion. Space for additional assignments, if needed, is included. Kolbe Academy does not require that you keep record of all student work. If you intend to report your child's work to Kolbe Academy for an official report card, only one sample of written and graded work is required per quarter for each course along with a report card submission. Parents should use the grade book only as a help to their home schooling and not as hindrance. Point values and weighting are suggested for convenience and may be modified, dropped completely, or added to as the parent deems fit. Please consult the welcome packet for a full tutorial on using the grade book.

This reading course contains 36 weeks broken into four 9-week quarters. Week 8 is considered a review week and week 9 is dedicated strictly to examination. Your student may not need all of Week 8 for review. You can use this time to catch up if necessary and then go over the subject matter. If you intend to use the tests provided, look them over before teaching the subjects and make sure you teach the material in the tests. Some children have a difficult time doing written exams, but it is important for them to learn how to take them. If your fifth grader does poorly on them, give them to him orally a couple of days after he has taken them and average the grades.

Finally, begin every class with a prayer. This is a good way to help the child memorize new prayers. Repeat the same ones every day until they are known. Be sure to explain the meanings of the prayers. Repetition in all areas of study is most beneficial.
